

BE STRONG – Things Without End (Eilu Devarim)

Words: Robin Paglia-Dennis based on liturgy (Peah 1:1, Mishnah) Music: Susan Colin © 2010

Join in the laughter and hope of new love
Comfort those ailing in pain
Make all feel welcome in your company
These are the things without end

Honor the ones who brought you to life
And guard you when you might fall
Cherish the gift of contentment and peace
The most rare and elusive of all

Don't look to heaven, joy resides here
These are the things without end
These are the things without end

Show your compassion in all of your actions
Learn with your mind and your soul
Mourn with the grieving, pray with believing
These are the things without end

Be there for those who cannot repay
Make peace wherever you go
The fruits of the world are right here in your hand
Study Torah, it leads to them all

Don't look to heaven, joy resides here
These are the things without end
These are the things without end
